ERATH COUNTY, TEXAS

Place: Outside the South door of the Erath County Courthouse (exterior steps to the main floor facing College Street), Stephenville, Texas, or as designed by the Erath County Commissioner's Court.

Terms of Sale: The Foreclosure Sale will be conducted as a public auction and the Property will be sold to the highest bidder for cash, except that Ozona Bank's bid may be by credit against the indebtedness secured by the lien of the Deed of Trust.

Default has occurred in the payment of the Note and in the performance of the obligations of the Deed of Trust. Because of that default, Ozona Bank, the owner and holder of the Note, has requested Substitute Trustee to sell the Property.

The Deed of Trust may encumber both real and personal property. Formal notice is hereby given of Ozona Bank's election to proceed against the sale of the real property only at the Foreclosure Sale. All personal property remaining on the real property will be subject to the rights and remedies of Lender as a secured party pursuant to Chapter 9 of the Texas Business and Commerce Code.

Therefore, notice is given that on and at the Date, Time, and Place for the Foreclosure Sale described above, Substitute Trustee will sell the Property in accordance with the Terms of Sale described above, the Deed of Trust, and applicable Texas law.

If Ozona Bank passes the Foreclosure Sale, notice of the date of any rescheduled foreclosure sale will be reposted and refiled in accordance with the posting and filing requirements of the Deed of Trust and the Texas Property Code.

The Foreclosure Sale will be made expressly subject to any title matters set forth in the Deed of Trust, but prospective bidders are reminded that by law the Foreclosure Sale will necessarily be made subject to all prior matters of record affecting the Property, if any, to the extent that they remain in force and effect and have not been subordinated to the Deed of Trust. For the avoidance of doubt, the Foreclosure Sale will not cover any part of the Property that has been released of public record from the lien and/or security interest of the Deed of Trust by Ozona Bank. Prospective bidders are strongly urged to examine the applicable property records to determine the nature and extent of such matters, if any.

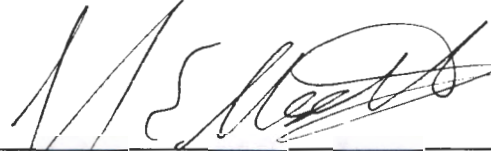

Pursuant to section 51.009 of the Texas Property Code, the Property will be sold "AS IS" without any expressed or implied warranties, except as to the warranties (if any) provided for under the Deed of Trust. Prospective bidders are advised to conduct an independent investigation of the nature and physical condition of the Property.

Pursuant to section 51.0075(a) of the Texas Property Code, Substitute Trustee reserves the right to set further reasonable conditions for conducting the Foreclosure Sale. Any such further conditions shall be announced before bidding is opened for the first sale of the day held by Substitute Trustee.

As a condition to the Foreclosure Sale, at Lender's option, Lender may reserve a temporary easement (the "Temporary Easement") allowing: (a) Lender to keep any personal property subject to Lender's security interest located on the real property at the time of the Foreclosure Sale (the "Collateral") on the real property free of charge or rent for 30 days following the Foreclosure Sale, (b) Lender during such 30 day period to enter the real property to remove the Collateral, (c) Lender during such 30 day period to conduct a private or public sale of the Collateral on the real property, and (4) the purchaser of any Collateral at any private or public sale during such 30 day period to enter the real property during such 30 day period to remove such purchased Collateral. If at the Foreclosure Sale, Lender elects to exercise such right to reserve the Temporary Easement, the terms and conditions of the Temporary Easement will be included in the Trustee's deed conveying the real property.
